Two Homes On North Hill Are Fire Damaged

Loss Of $3,500 Sustained At Home Of Jack Conn On Garfield Avenue

SUMNER AVENUE HOME ALSO AFIRE

Second Blaze Occurs Before Second Ward Department Had Returned To Service

Two serious fires occurred Wednesday evening on the North Hill, one at 8:40 in the duplex dwelling at 414 Sumner avenue, which was afire on December 13, and was just being remodeled; and the second at 9:45 in the home of Jack Conn, of 109 East Garfield avenue.

The second blaze was the most serious fire occurring while Second Ward firemen were still at the scene of the first blaze, and had gained considerable headway when discovered. Loss from the two fires will be around $4,000, covered by insurance.

The loss at the Conn home was estimated by Assistant Chief George W. Harper at $3,500, which is covered by insurance. The loss to the contents was around $1,500, and the loss to the building, owned by Mrs. R. K. Aiken, was $2,000. This fire was discovered at 9:45 by neighbors, the Conn family being absent when the fire broke out.

Numerous Alarms

The first blaze, in the duplex dwelling at 414 Sumner avenue seemed to be of serious proportions and Assistant Chief Harper had a second alarm sounded from Box 27.

These photos show how President Roosevelt looked when inaugurated in March 1933 and how he appears on his fifty-fourth birthday, January 30. In observance of his birthday, the chief executive will talk to the nation over the radio on the Warm Springs foundation. Many cities are holding balls in honor of the president's birthday.

Many Remembrances Are Sent To President

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—A sizeable pile of remembrances from members of his family and well-wishers throughout the country awaited President Roosevelt's attention this morning on his 54th birthday.

The president looked through the gifts and mementoes in his room at the white house before going to his office for the day.

Mrs. Roosevelt was busy, meanwhile, making arrangements for tonight's birthday party at the white house where, as usual, the little group which has been with the president throughout his political career will assemble.

Tonight Mrs. Roosevelt will leave the white house in time to make a personal appearance at each of the six birthday balls being run locally for the benefit of infantile paralysis sufferers. The president will speak a brief word of greeting over the radio to all of the 7,000 celebrations being held throughout the country.

FOUND GUILTY OF HARBORING OUTLAW

(International News Service)

DETROIT, Jan. 30.—Her bruntiness giving little hint of the time she spent in prison, Evelyn Frechette, dark-eyed paramour of John Dillinger, walked out of the federal building here today a free woman.

Several youngsters dared heavy traffic along East Long avenue hill, Wednesday night, for a sled ride. Young Pa Newc nearly crashed into one of the youngsters, who evidently lost control of his sled. Fortunately the writer turned the wheel just in time, averting what might have been a serious accident.

According to Frank Heasley, who is caretaker of the Crawford home on North Jefferson street, Miss Carrie Crawford has an old set of Portland bobsleds, which were quite sporty some years ago, and which are available for exhibition purposes if anyone desires to put them on.

When the snow is on the hills and the meadows banked with white, when the roads are gleaming ribbons as you travel through the night, here's a thought that may have missed you, and in just a few short words, let me ask that you remember all the wild life and birds.

All their food is buried deeply under feet and snow and when they are set at lunchtime they have little place to go. So a little time and labor, and a bag or two of feed will keep wild life from starvation.

HITLER SPEAKS TO MULTITUDE

(International News Service)

BERLIN, Jan. 30.—"Give me four years!" said Adolf Hitler when he became Reichschancellor; and today, amid scenes of enthusiasm rivaling those of three years ago, he began the fourth year of a program designed to maintain the national-socialist regime "for a thousand years."

Twenty-five thousand veteran storm troopers were brought into Berlin from all over the country, and packed into the Lustgarten to hear Hitler orate from the balcony of the former kaiser's Schloss.

Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels and Viktor Lutze, chief of staff of the S. A. troops, were also on the speaking program, while similar meetings in miniature were held all over the country.

Tonight the torchlight procession of 1933 is being repeated, the more than 30,000 storm troopers and special Hitler blackshirts parading thru Wilhelmstrasse in a blaze of light while Hitler takes the salute from the chancellor balcony.

and brought apparatus from Central Second ward, and No. 6 department to the scene, No. 5 department moving up to Central station.

The fire is believed to have started from oily rags which had been left by the painters on the stair landing. Remodeling of the home from the fire last December had practically been completed. The loss by the second fire will probably be around $500. The house is owned by the People's Mutual Building and Loan Association, and was unoccupied.

Second ward firemen had not returned to the station house when the fire in the Conn home was discovered by neighbors at 9:45 o'clock. Box 214 was pulled, and when firemen did not arrive immediately, the box was pulled again, two alarms sounding on the second occasion, making three alarms in all from the box, and brought every available piece of fire apparatus in the city to the scene except the Seventh ward truck, six departments responding.

FAMILY ABSENT

The fire in the Conn home is believed to have started from a source similar to that of the Summer avenue fire. There was no one at home when the fire started, and it had gaped considerable headway when discovered by neighbors.

Mrs. Conn had been in the hospital recently, in Youngstown, and while recuperating from an operation, had been staying with her sister, who resides in Youngstown. Mr. Conn and the children had been staying with Mr. Conn's parents, on Winter avenue. Mr. Conn had been keeping a fire in the home during the cold weather, and had visited the house for a short time earlier in the evening, after which he had taken his mother and gone to Youngstown to see his wife, who was to have returned here next Monday. He stated that everything was all right when he left the house.

The fire seemed to have started in a closet under the stairway on the first floor, presumably from a cedar mop. It went up the stairway and up one side of the house, breaking out through the roof. When firemen arrived, they found the interior of the home a mass of flames.

In spite of the great headway that the fire had gained, firemen prevented entire destruction of the home, although considerable remodeling will be necessary to make it habitable again.

DECLARAS RAINY SEASON WILL NOT HALT CAMPAIGN

50,000 additional workmen will speedily be put to the task of constructing military roads in the trackless mountains and deserts.

They will keep the long lines of communication open, he said, enabling the fast-moving mechanized and foot forces to press onward to vital Ethiopian centers, while supplies of arms and food continue uninterrupted.

Rains are expected to begin on the northern front, where fresh Italian gains are reported, in about two months, and on the Somaliland front, where the armies of General Rodolfo Graziani are now static, a little later.

SURPRISE PLANS.

In connection with II Duce's surprise plans to speed up the war regardless of the long rains, the cabinet drafted a law abolishing the various terms of military service, and establishing 18 months as the general period of conscription for all classes.

The council also re-established the war-time right for the military to requisition all wool on the basis of "guaranteeing a fair profit to all growers."

Another decree obliged all male citizens between the ages of 11 and 35 to record their military and pre-military training and the extent of their preparation for active army service.

These records will be indispensable whenever anyone of those ages applies for civilian employment. Every Italian within those brackets must have a military record in his possession.

NOTABLE CAMPAIGN FOR PRESIDENT SEEN

ouiseased by permitting a nationwide broadcast of an address to a Kansas anniversary banquet.

The most significant note in their speeches was that they agreed on a wide number of campaign issues. They revealed themselves in accord on constitutional issues, the importance of business recovery, on opposition to government bureaucracy, on the futility of the Townsend old age plan, the need for government old age pensions and in a demand for purging relief of waste and partisanship.

The schisms in the Democratic party probably will have no effect on the renomination of President Roosevelt at Philadelphia next June. They may have tremendous effect, however, on his chances for re-election in November.

Within five days, former governor Alfred E. Smith of New York Democratic standard-bearer in 1928, led a conservative bolt against Roosevelt policies and Governor Eugene Talmadge, of Georgia, launched a Jeffersonian revolt against Mr. Roosevelt's renomination, while Mr. Roosevelt's re-nomination is generally conceded, if these two revolts are carried actively into next November's election, they will give the administration great concern.

The Smith and Talmadge revolts were anticipated but the striking parallel between the views of Borah and Landon on campaign issues did create comment. Republican spokesmen generally felt it indicated there would be little conflict over the drafting of a Republican platform at Cleveland, regardless of the identity of the candidate.

(International News Service)

BERLIN, Jan. 30—Readiness of Chancellor Hitler and War Minister Von Blomberg to crush any uprising or domestic unrest within the third Reich with iron-handed use of military forces was indicated today in a decree defining the army's rights to resort to arms against the public.

The decree sanctioned the use of arms "without further orders" in case domestic peace and order must be restored.

Issued on the third anniversary of the Nazi's rise to power, the order stipulates that such conditions exist when it is necessary to repel attacks and threats of attacks, or in case force is required to break down resistance.

Their bodies were discovered by Mrs. Seigle's husband, Theodore, when he returned from work to find the house filled with illuminating gas. In a note asking forgiveness the woman declared she was despondent because "I can't do any thing right any more."

FINE PROGRAM AT CHEERIO MEETING

Cheerio club associates were guests of Mrs. Fred Fabian, of Court street, Wednesday evening, being served a delicious luncheon upon their arrival. The table was beautifully arranged in the season's predominating colors, and Miss Alice Johnson assisted with the menu.

Later, a spelling contest caused much merriment. Viola Neyman capturing the award. A paper by Mrs. Kenneth McDonald on "Success of Good Baking" was well received and deeply appreciated. Mrs. E. L. McKissick gave a talk on an interesting subject, "Different Ways Mohammedans, Chinese and Egyptians Choose Names for Their Children."

Due to the illness of two members, an election of officers planned for last night, was postponed until the next meeting. This will take place on February 11, in the home of Mrs. Edward Kelly, 1812 East Washington street, and the affair will be in the nature of an anniversary and Valentine party.

Dr. S. Elliott Irvine, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church of this city, was the officiating clergyman at the wedding in Butler on the evening of January 27, when Mrs. Robert Ivory, of Sewickley and Butler, was united in marriage to Dr. Joseph Christie Hamilton, pastor of the United Presbyterian church of Sewickley.

The ceremony took place in the home of Miss Edith Galbreath, the bride's sister. Miss Galbreath and Roland Hamilton of New York, nephew of Dr. Hamilton, were the only attendants. A dinner for members of the families followed in the Nixon hotel, in Butler.

Dr. Hamilton and Mrs. Hamilton, who is the daughter of the late Judge and Mrs. J. M. Galbreath of Butler, will live in Nevin avenue, Sewickley.

GRADUATING CLASS PARTY AT CASTLETON

Wednesday night the main ball room of The Castleton Hotel was turned into a place of mirth and merriment as members of the January graduating class of the high school held their semi-annual dinner-dance. A very elaborate and much enjoyed program was arranged by Lois Ringer, general chairman for the affair, and Richard Gregor, president of the class.

Toastmaster Richard Gregor introduced Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of the New Castle school district, and Prof. F. F. Orth, principal of the high school. Both Dr. Green and Prof. Orth delivered inspiring talks to the graduates. Gifts were presented to Principal Orth and Class Supervisor Lois Martin, from the members of the class.

James Dufford was chosen by the class to present a gift of appreciation to President Gregor. Members of the varsity basketball and football teams were presented with small basketball or footballs according to the sport in which the person participated. Those receiving these gifts were: Richard Gregor, Harry Stancro, James Foster and Wilbur Stirtz. The presentation being made by William Cleland.

The remaining hours in the evening were spent with dancing and card playing featuring. Special guests present were Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Green, Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Cleland, and Eddie Donnegan, president of the June graduating class.

The speakers' table was very gaily decorated in colors of scarlet and gray, the color theme being carried out with candles and white flowers. All other tables were adorned with scarlet candles, silver balls and clear cellophane. These decorations were arranged by a committee from the art department composed of Dorothy Moon, chairman; Freda Bodendorfer, Fay Stump, Tom Staubsburg, Bill Reynolds, Walter Thompson and Jim Bishop.

To climax the program Prof. Orth announced the winners of various awards and scholarships which were presented by New Castle firms and colleges about the country. These awards will be presented at the commencement exercises tomorrow night. Class annuals were also presented to the members of the class.

Birthday Party
Mrs. Fred M. Green entertained a group of friends and neighbors in honor of her husband's birthday which occurred on January 24. Flower Show Judge
Mrs. S. D. Pearson, of Moody avenue, will judge entries at the flower show to be held at the Pittsburgh Garden Center next Monday afternoon.

Previous to the show Mrs. A. P. Meyer, chairman of the program committee, will give a luncheon in Hotel Schenley for some of the women arranging the event.

Wimodausis Luncheon Party Honors Mrs. H. L. Dague

Honoring their most gracious and efficient president, Mrs. H. L. Dague, Wimodausis club women assembled in the Cathedral Wednesday afternoon, for their concluding social meeting of the club year. It proved one of the most delightfully planned activities on their calendar.

The affair, took the form of a 1 o'clock luncheon, the guests filling into the main dining room of the Cathedral at the set hour with officials marching in last to tunes of music provided by a group of guest artists.

The tables were attractively set in a color theme of red and white. Clusters of choice flowers in white pottery vases, intermingled with white artificial branches holding miniature red hearts surrounding dainty cupids were used as centerpieces. At either end, were five burning candles in silver holders, giving a glowing effect. Chairman of the affair, Mrs. H. W. French, asked Mrs. Frank Woods to lead in prayer. This was followed by the serving of a most delicious menu, with women of Highland United Presbyterian church, in charge.

Throughout this procedure, Mrs. Merle Ingham, chairman of the program introduced a group of musicians who were brought here from Salem, O., as especially invited guests. They provided a program of pleasing luncheon music favoring the assemblage with classical and popular melodies, some worked out in original form with a touch of wit added which aroused enthusiasm.

Vocal groups, trios, solos, violin and piano numbers and various combinations given by the ensemble added further to the enjoyment of the occasion. The artists contributing were: John L. Hundertmark, talented violinist, his mother, Mrs. John W. Hundertmark, Mrs. Stephen Odor, the possessor of a deep, rich voice, Miss Marie Callahan, vocalist and Eldon Gibbons, violinist. Each received encores, pleasing the club women gathered, which numbered around two-hundred.

An especially written song for Mrs. H. L. Dague, was sung to tunes of "Comin' Thru The Rye" as the first feature, following the serving.

As this was in progress, Mrs. Bessie Coates Pitzer and Mrs. W. H. Dunlap, slowly marched down the center aisle between the banquet tables, in quaint attire, representing St. Valentine's Day, while the guests tapped their water glasses with spoons, providing novel musical accompaniment to the honored guests' table, stopping at Mrs. Dague's place. They presented her, their retiring and re-elected president, with an exquisite gift of crystal, a remembrance from Wimodausis members. Mrs. Dague responded in a most appreciative manner, expressing beautiful thoughts for the lovely party and program of musical entertainment, planned especially for her.

Mrs. H. W. French was largely responsible for the efficient manner in which the affair was carried out, was given shoulder corsage from her appointed committee of women who worked with her.

To one side of the dining room, a quaint "Antique Room" was arranged, in colonial fashion, with a collection of tables, chairs, vases, hooked-rugs, what-nots, and pictures, each representative of a history running over a century. This exhibit was most interesting, and claimed attention of the women, prior to their adjourning to the East Lodge room, where the balance of the afternoon was spent. Cards, including 500, auction and contract bridge and bingo were the diversions enjoyed. Lovely handkerchiefs were awarded to winners at each table, at conclusion of the contests.

These rooms took on a colorful sight, with red and white streamers strung about. Valentine hearts and floor lamps, giving a cozy effect. Just before the players entered into the various games, the guest artists favored them with three special musical numbers, which concluded their program.

This affair attracted many guests.

Cards filled in the hours, Mrs. A. G. Reynolds and Mrs. Charles Usselton capturing the honor score prizes. Miss Alice Mae Huffman was a special guest of the evening.

A delicious collation was later served by the hostess, with Sylvia Lee Martin assisting, the small tables being prettily re-appointed for this feature. Afterwards, they planned for their next assemblage to take place with Mrs. Charles Usselton, Laurel boulevard on Wednesday, February 12.

RECENT BRIDE IS HONORED AT PARTY

A charming post-nuptial affair was tendered Mrs. Edward Blumberger, nee Julia Levy, by Mrs. Samuel Rose and Miss Doris Winick, Wednesday evening at the home of the former on Boyles avenue. This exhibit was most interesting, and claimed attention of the women, prior to their adjourning to the East Lodge room, where the balance of the afternoon was spent. Cards, including 500, auction and contract bridge and bingo were the diversions enjoyed. Lovely handkerchiefs were awarded to winners at each table, at conclusion of the contests.

Canter Bridge Club

An enjoyable evening was spent at the Harrison street home of Mrs. C. E. Kennedy, Wednesday, by members of the Canter Bridge club. A contest in cards featured the early hours, prizes being won by Elma Houk and Mary Whalen. The latter of whom assisted the hostess with festivities, invited the group to her Ray street home on Wednesday, February 19.

A tasty spaghetti menu was served by the hostess at a late hour, with all associates seated at the dining table, which was attractively decorated in tones of red and white, suggestive of the Valentine season. Novel candy hearts tied with red cellophane, were favors found at each place, and a pretty floral piece featuring the same idea, flanked by tall tapers, graced the center.

A short discussion regarding a party to be held sometime in the near future, and other items of interest, concluded the evening.

LOCAL INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION

PLANS being developed for a local industrial exhibition, to reveal to the community just what a large variety of products is manufactured in New Castle and Lawrence county, will result in a show that will amaze even the best informed in the locality, we predict.

Starting out with the modest idea of having the exhibition in one of the store rooms in the city hall, the first conference on the project developed the fact that a much greater display space would be needed to put the exhibition across successfully.

Representatives of some 20 industries in the city and county attended the preliminary meeting, and it was discovered that the way the idea is taking root here, the industrial exhibition is going to be one of major importance in the events of the year for New Castle.

It will be the first demonstration of the kind in New Castle's long industrial history, but it will be a revelation to most residents.

Carried through to the success that is now indicated, the exhibition will be a real impetus to the development of the city and community. It will give some new angles on the importance of this municipality in the industrial world.

There is no doubt of real enthusiasm and co-operation county-wide with those originating the idea, which insures a gratifying success for the venture.

JUST AN URGE TO BUY

No one who has ever ventured into an auction room can fail to feel a surge of fellow feeling for New York gentleman who out-bought himself at one of those affairs in Brooklyn the other day.

This man wandered into a sale of unclaimed articles conducted by the police department. He wanted a used car, and when one was put on the block he bid for it and got it, at an amazingly cheap price.

And then the fever got him. More cars were put up, and he bid for them, too; and at the end of the day he found himself the owner, not of one used car, but of nine, for which he had paid a total of $293.50.

He had no use for them and he hadn't planned to buy them, but there they were—his, irrevocably.

It's so easy, somehow, to understand what happened. Any kind of auction can be almost irresistible, if you're in the mood for it.

Who hasn't felt the urge to go on and on, bidding for things one doesn't want, just for the sake of bidding?

AGAIN—A QUEEN IN THE MAKING

Both King Edward VIII and the Duke of York, his heir-presumptive, flew from Sandringham to London last week so the new sovereign could take the oath of the crown.

And for an hour, while they traveled by air, the crown poised—through the possibility of accident—over the curly head of the nine-year-old Princess Elizabeth.

The accident possibility was remote, of course, but it's a fact that Edward, in exercising his precedent-breaking privilege, gave the British people many an anxious moment as their crown prince; and he's likely to do so, too, as their king, although not to so great a degree.

Even with the normal span of life, however, of the king and his brother, Great Britain can look to the day when it will again be ruled by a queen.

Elizabeth is growing rapidly. She will be 10 next April. And it is logical and fitting and proper that she will become one of the chief interests of Queen Mother Mary in expectation of the day when this oldest daughter of the Duke of York—in the direct line of succession—will be Queen Elizabeth.

PLAYING BY THE RULES

Part of the obligation of a chief executive of the state or nation is to see that legislation which he signs, and still more which he originates, shall be, within reasonable expectation, constitutional. President Roosevelt cannot put the onus of the unconstitutionality of the NRA or the AAA on the supreme court. Still less can he for the Guffey coal act, for the gist of his orders to congress was to pass it, constitutional or not.

The difficulty of unscrambling the illegal processing taxes is a minor illustration of the injustice and expense that reckless legislation imposes on everybody.

And in this instance the consumer is the uncompensated victim for from him, without a doubt, came the major part of the impounded taxes now to be returned to the processors. The latter to the extent that they passed the disputed taxes on are the richer.

One of the things we need most in this country today is reasonable certainty and stability. We do not expect nor is it financially possible to carry 10,000,000 of unemployed on the dole forever. People have to be given the opportunity to go to work. But so long as nobody knows what Washington is going to do next and so long as there remains substantial doubt as to the constitutionality of what Washington is going to do—then we can business go ahead?

Constitutionality is a test of competency. We can win any game if we can make our own rules and change them with each hand we play. We may have the best intentions but we have deluded our followers and are not entitled to their confidence.

SAYING WHAT YOU THINK
You can't always say what you think. You can think what you want and theoretically you can say what you think, but practically the wise man guards his tongue.

You don't walk up to a strange woman on the street and say "Pardon me, madam, but your underskirt is showing." . . . A woman might say that and be thanked for it. But a man couldn't. . . . And even if you had any ideas on the subject, you wouldn't turn to a woman alongside of you in a street car and inform her that she should never wear green and that a woman with a big nose like hers shouldn't wear the kind of hat that makes it so prominent. . . . You wouldn't say that to a man, either. He might object and voice some of HIS sudden opinions about YOU."

Some doctors have a bad time. Wherever they go they size up people, analyze them and mentally make diagnosis. But they can't say anything—except to some close friend or a patient—because it would sound too much like "drumming up trade."

So you can't make critical remarks, but you can't even make friendly ones.

Unless ladies are nice old lady—and nice old ladies enjoy privileges that nobody else does—you can't compliment that pretty stranger on her lovely eyes. She knows she has fine eyes, she knows you know it, that's enough. . . . You can compliment some man on the fine fit of the suit he is wearing and ask him where he got it and how much it costs. You can't tell him that you envy him his hearty and infectious laugh.

There are a lot of things you can't do in this world, and saying what you think to strangers is one of them. . . . And though it's a pity perhaps it's just as well. Our judgment isn't good enough to allow us to say what we think to anyone we chance to meet. We'd probably offend more than we please—and, besides, we do not pay enough compliments to the friends we have now.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The New Deal management is letting the impression get abroad that the American Liberty league is "getting its goat," which is very poor politics.

The Roosevelt organization's correct policy is to maintain an attitude of supreme, contemptuous indifference toward the league. Instead, the administration's leadership shows signs of panic, simply advertising the leaguers' activities, by the utterances it has permitted to be broadcast and some of the steps it has allowed to be taken.

This perturbation was particularly noticeable just before the league's recent Washington banquet, with Al Smith as its star attraction.

AN INCIDENT

For example, the banquet's eve was a politically most inopportune junction for the treasury department to attack the income tax records of Pierre du Pont and John J. Raskob, two of the Liberty folk's heavy financial backers.

It may have been only a coincidence, of course.

Nevertheless it has been talked about that opponents of the administration are rather overly subject to having their past income tax payments called in question. Moreover, in relating the news that the du Pont and Raskob cases were under review, administration officials were a bit ostentatious in reminding reporters that du Pont and Raskob both are prominent Liberty league members.

Anyway, if there was no desire on officialdom's part to "smear" the leagues, at least there was no desire to shield it.

The incident has been a deal gossiped about.

OTHER ATTACKS

On the heels of the du Pont-Raskob announcement came Senator Lewis B. Schwellenbach's speech, denouncing the leaguers as "rascals and crooks"—a group out of whom a couple have run for president on the Democratic ticket.

It sounds like an intemperate statement.

Finally, the very day before the Liberty league's dinner, Chairman Hugo L. Black of the senate's lobby investigating committee revealed that he had circulated a sheet of questionnaires to contributors to the league, designed to expose it as a pernicious legislative influence.

ONE VIEW

Now, it may not be that Pierre du Pont and John J. Raskob have dodged any income taxes, that the Liberty league consists of "rascals and crooks" or that the league is a pernicious lobby.

However, income tax dodging, rascality and pernicious lobbying were the charges piled up against it, by those it is opposed to, precisely as it was about to hold that dinner in Washington. Is it odd that they were so synchronized? Many critics think so—and say so.

There are New Dealers who take the same view.

Their notion is that the Liberty league should have been ignored, like the southern Talmadge-Kirby movement, of the "Every Man a King" campaign, now that Huey P. Long has been eliminated in Louisiana.

A "HATE VOTE" POSSIBLE

The danger is, from the Roosevelt standpoint, that the Liberty league, the Talmadge-Kirbyites and the "Every-Man-a-Kingites" will amalgamate—not to elect the next presidential candidate, but to cast a "hate vote" that will beat Roosevelt.

How they will do it, if at all, remains a problem.

There isn't much promise of an independent ticket—which could not win but might beat Roosevelt.

The Liberty league effervesces, but it doesn't produce any tangibility.

To be sure, its membership can vote the Republican ticket—but one would think this would be very painful to an Al Smith or a John W. Davis, who have run for president on the Democratic ticket.

NO TANGIBILITY PRODUCED

The possibilities of a triangular contest are comparable to those of the McKinley-Bryan-and-Palmer and Buckner fight of 1896. A parallel of the Palmer and Buckner ticket isn't yet offered, however, to help the next Republican candidate against President Roosevelt.

The Liberty league effervesces, but it doesn't produce any tangibility.

BIRTHDAYS OF TWO HONORED AT PARTY

DESSERT-BRIDGE AT FIELD CLUB ENJOYED

A surprise shower at the parsonage of the Primitive Methodist church on Maitland street Tuesday evening honored the teacher, Mrs. H. J. Sutton, and the president, Mrs. Thomas Borovalis of the King's Daughters.

The event was in celebration of the birthdays of both and proved as enjoyable to them as it was surprising. The members of the organization had arranged a shower of lovely handkerchiefs for the occasion.

Games and contests were offered as the evening's amusements and prizes were won by Mrs. Ed Koonce and Mrs. Ruth Unstead.

A delicious lunch was served by a committee of which Mrs. Thomas Borovalis, Miss Sadie Lewis, Mrs. Eugene Rogers, Mrs. Ed Koonce and Mrs. Ruth Unstead were members. Mrs. Borovalis had been one of the principal planners for honoring Mrs. Sutton, but had no intimacy that she was to share in the honors.

inherited money are bona fide, but beware of efforts to induce you to file a claim for contested estates on the basis of some shadowy or imagined relationship.

More than 2,300 people popped up to claim a cut in the $100,000.00 Wendel estate. Many fortunes produce as many as a dozen. Invariably the contestants lose—and they often lose their good names into the bargain.

Versatility Note: Bob Ripley, I hear, has taken time off from his tracking down of the incredible to design a newfangled woman's hat.

The boom in the skiing fad has reached notable proportions this winter. "Snow trains" leave regularly for the nearby mountains where the tall slides are to be found and many a weekender has found himself marooned in some upstate village, to miss several days at the office, because of recent blizzards.

All the better sporting goods stores maintain ski instructors and at least two of them have miniature slides in upstairs rooms where neophytes can learn the art. I am told that anyone of average agility can learn to be a fairly proficient skier in three months.

There is a technique among the "their chasers." Most of them are not accredited members of the bar, having failed their entrance examinations or been disbanded. They advertise constantly for claimants to estates, encourage distance relations of the dead to file applications i a share.

First they acquire "power of attorney" from the bamboozled claimants, then hire accredited members of the bar to press the case. Power of attorney, of course, enables them to act for the phoney heirs in any way they see fit, even implying that the sucker is an illegitimate child or otherwise tarnishing his name. Too often the misguided folk are willing to be bemuddled if there is the faintest hope of collecting.

Of course many advertisements for heirs are perfectly legitimate and the honest search for missing legatees must not be confused with the "racket" variety. The difference is this: The ads you see by reputable lawyers trying to locate this or that missing person who has

Drive To Reduce Auto Accidents

Pennsylvania Power Company To Seek Record For Six Months

A concerted drive to reduce automobile accidents is being undertaken by the Pennsylvania Power Company during the first six months of 1936. This drive, a part of the Pennsylvania Electric Association's Safe-Driving contest, is being intensively carried on by the local company in all its departments and divisions.

Recent figures disclose that a slight improvement in driving safety was accomplished by the company during 1935. Company owned automobiles and trucks were operated 1,345,000 miles during 1935 against 1,217,000 miles during 1934. The average number of miles operated per accident increased from 30,400 in 1934 to 34,500 in 1935.

It is hoped that the present safety activity to increase still further the "Safe Driving Miles" of company vehicles during 1936.

An accident, under the rules of the company and of the safety contest, is defined as, "Anything whatsoever that results in damage to the property or personal injury in connection with the driving of a car". A bent fender, even though due to the carelessness of some other driver, is nevertheless considered an accident. Thus, it is stressed that the Power Company's drivers must not only heed the rules of safe driving themselves, but must in addition be constantly alert to prevent an accident caused by another's carelessness.

Italian fighters are trying to hurt the enemy as little as possible. That was Carnera's plan, too.

New Deal Plan Hasn't Solved Relief Problem

Hopkins' Statement Shows Relief Needs Nearly As Great As Ever

OVER EIGHT BILLION DOLLARS NOW SPENT

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—After more than two and one half years of direct and work relief, and the appropriation of $8,220,000,000 of federal funds, relief and work relief demands are almost as great as ever; congressional leaders were informed today by WPA Administrator Harry L. Hopkins.

"Although no estimate of budget needs for continuing relief and work relief has been submitted to congress, Hopkins and his chief assistant, Aubrey Williams, told a group of senators that there had been only a "slight" improvement from the peak relief load of 20,000,000 persons last January.

Approximately 1,000,000 of the 4,200,000 families then on direct relief have been shifted to state and local agencies, Hopkins said. These are mainly the families of "unemployables".

The work relief program, however, will have exhausted its funds, totaling more than $1,120,000,000 by July 1, Hopkins told the senators. Meanwhile the heavy construction programs of PWA whose funds were cut to $340,000,000 under the $4,880,000,000 program, and of the war, navy and other governmental agencies, will not reach their peak until July or August—and they cannot take up the slack of employment when WPA has exhausted its funds, officials said.

The CCC also is being cut from original $600,000 planned to 260,000. While President Roosevelt has said that he "hoped" the relief needs would not be more than $2,000,000,000, other officials were skeptical. The senate meeting was held in Majority Leader Robinson's office at Hopkins' request.

Mine Cave-In Breaks Gas Main

Six Persons Are Overcome By Gas Fumes Near Scranton

(International News Service)
SCRANTON, Pa., Jan. 30.—Six persons were overcome, 40 others made ill and the lives of nearly 200 endangered early today when a mine cave-in in the Keyser Valley section of Scranton broke an illuminating gas main and flooded homes with the deadly fumes.

First noticed last night, the earth settling continued today, snapping the gas pipe and damaging about 40 homes in three city blocks. Pulmoxins were used by police to review several members of the family of Thomas Cangan, in whose home four persons were overcome, including two small boys. Many other families were forced to abandon their dwellings, either because of fumes from the broken main or the danger of building collapse as homes twisted out of line with the earth shift.

Inaugurate Move To Unseat Green

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—As the convention of the United Mine Workers entered its third day today a movement was inaugurated to unseat William Green, president of the A. F. of L., as the representative of the miners' union in the federation.

Green, a former miner, has held a card in the union for many years. He is now in Florida where he attended the meeting of the executive council of the federation. He is scheduled to address the convention and is expected to make a caustic reply to his critics.

Borah Attacks Townsend Plan

Idaho Senator And Presidential Possibility Says
"It's Impracticable"

(International News Service)
LONG BEACH, Cal., Jan. 30.—With Sen. William E. Borah openly opposing his $200-a-month pension plan, Dr. Francis E. Townsend today said his supporters definitely would file third-party petitions in every state in the union.

Before Borah assailed the plan as "impracticable," the Townsends had hoped he would endorse their idea and they could thus support him for the presidency.

Recovering from a severe throat ailment in his home here, the elderly, doctor and originator of the plan to regain economic well-being by paying everyone more than 60 years of age $200 a month, bitterly struck back at Borah's denunciation.

First noticed last night, the earth settling continued today, snapping the gas pipe and damaging about 40 homes in three city blocks.

Pulmoxins were used by police to review several members of the family of Thomas Cangan, in whose home four persons were overcome, including two small boys. Many other families were forced to abandon their dwellings, either because of fumes from the broken main or the danger of building collapse as homes twisted out of line with the earth shift.

Approximately 1,000,000 of the 4,200,000 families then on direct relief have been shifted to state and local agencies, Hopkins said. These are mainly the families of "unemployables".

The work relief program, however, will have exhausted its funds, totaling more than $1,120,000,000 by July 1, Hopkins told the senators. Meanwhile the heavy construction programs of PWA whose funds were

With the completion of the new $3,000,000 ship repair basin in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii and extensive dredging and widening of the channel, the Hawaii yard is almost ready to assume a role as a major peace-time overhaul and repair base for the naval ships. Indications are that in the near future cruisers will be sent to Pearl Harbor for overhaul, thus relieving the pressure on the Bremerton, Washington and Mare Island, California yards.

In addition to the improvement mentioned above, Pearl Harbor will have a new 37,000 ton, $10,000,000 floating drydock, giving the yard facilities for the drydocking of any type ship in the navy.

For the purpose of training during the annual war games, the Japanese fleet has been divided into three sections. It is said that the fleet was scheduled to meet at Yamada to worship the goddess Amaterasu before beginning their two months of strenuous training. Operating with the fleet will be several aircraft carriers. Japanese military aviation is a dangerous business and the men on those ships will be under a great strain. Last year ninety-eight flying officers were killed. So far this year twenty-two naval officers and twenty army officers have lost their lives while practicing their war games.

Severe Winter Spell Broken

Judge, Jury And Prosecutor Are Severely Scored

Westwood Counsel Files For New Trial, Allege "Juror"
Had Opinion

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Jan. 30.—Squire James J. Westwood's fight to escape life imprisonment for the slaying of his wife, Martha, was formally under way today.

Criticizing the judge, jury and prosecutor, who doomed the dapper McKees Rocks political boss, Westwood's attorneys filed an appeal before Judge Thomas M. Marshall, yesterday in their first step in seeking a new trial.

Specifically, defense counsel charged that Juror No. 5 "had a fixed opinion as to the defendant's guilt," that Judge William N. McNaugher received a note from the jury the night before the verdict was rendered and answered it without the presence of defense counsel, and that Prosecutor Chauncey Pruger "made a highly inflammatory (closing) address."

REQUEST ARRIVES AT BOARD TOO LATE

In a letter to the New Castle School board Wednesday night at its special meeting, the Workers' Progressive Association urged that no notices of delinquent persons taxes be sent to persons on relief or on WPA projects on the grounds that they could not pay and the notice would be an expense to the board. These notices were authorized some weeks ago and the work has been completed.

DOCTORS KNOW!

There is a remedy for children's biliaryness. Mothers, read this.

THREE STEPS

Measure-out a cleansing dose of liquid laxative to regulate the amount to suit the age, condition and individual need.

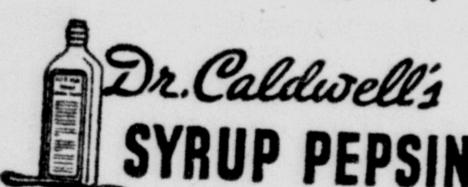

Tomorrow, take less; let regular muscular action of the bowels do part of the work—completely restored.

A constipated child is so easily straightened out, it's a pity more mothers don't know the remedy.

A liquid laxative is the answer, mothers. The answer to all your worries over constipation. A liquid can be measured. The dose can be exactly suited to any age or need. Just reduce the dose each time, until the bowels are moving of their own accord and need of help.

This treatment will succeed with any child and with any adult.

Doctors use liquid laxatives. Hospitals use the liquid form. If it is best for their use, it is best for home use. And today, there are at least a million families that would have no other kind in the house.

Watch For Result Of Georgia Convention Of Anti-New Dealers

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

MACON, Ga., Jan. 30.—The sound and fury that accompanied Gov. Gene Talmadge's anti-Roosevelt convention died away today, leaving to the politicians the task of assaying just how much importance—in terms of 1936—should properly be attached to the surprising goings-on here in the heart of Democratic Dixie.

Georgia's raven-haired, red-sus-pended governor was "nominated" for the presidency against Franklin D. Roosevelt by a Democratic mass-meeting that was as strange and unusual as any that ever gathered under one roof. The "tender" of the nomination was made by those who claimed to be conservative constitutionalists, by those who carried aloft the share-the-wealth banner of the late Huey Long, and by those who rejoiced in a good political fight irrespective of labels and banners.

Gov. Talmadge did not "accept the nomination." Neither did he decline it. He simply grinned wide and let it go at that. Meanwhile, he emptied the vials of his own wrath on the Roosevelt administration, listened approvingly to excoriation and denunciation such as no federal administration has been subjected to, and decided to wait a while before making any comments.

Shrewd Georgia politicians doubt that Governor Talmadge will stage a presidential primary to contest with President Roosevelt for the state delegation. They assert, first, that notwithstanding that Talmadge controls the party machinery in the state he would be by no means certain of winning, and, second, that he is good enough a politician to realize that even were he successful his delegation would most certainly be tossed out of the Philadelphia convention next June in favor of a hand-picked Roosevelt slate.

Slot Machines Are Subject To Tax

Women's Club Dues Are Not Taxable State Authority Says

Despite the fact that slot machines are illegal, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania demands that a permit be taken out for them and that taxes be paid on them. This is made clear today in a statement by J. L. McCorry, divisional chief of the Stamp and Amusement Taxes Department of Revenue.

For all proprietors of liquor establishments today received letters from the mayor asking that they refrain from serving intoxicating drinks to members of the police force while in uniform.

Song, "Happy Birthday to You," guests; horoscope of January and February; banjo and piano duet; Dick Scott and Junior Martin; horoscope of March and April; reading, Jack Martin of Youngstown; horoscope of May and June; vocal duet Doris Carr and Fren Chaddock; horoscope of July and August; vocal solo, Dick Hinson; horoscope of September and October; horoscope of November and December; vocal solo, Miss Helen Peletier.

The order sets out that the fact that slot machines are illegal makes no difference in the collection of tax, this being based upon the well-established theory that contraband articles are taxable.

Under another order issued at the same time Mr. McCorry states that dues in women's clubs which are member clubs of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women, are exempt from the tax on dues. They must apply for a permit to hold any entertainment where a fee is charged.

The hostesses for the various months were Mrs. Roy DeArment, Mrs. Chester Chadlock, Mrs. C. D. Montgomery, Mrs. Harry Hinson, Mrs. A. L. Hedberg, Mrs. W. C. Stanley, Mrs. A. L. Heard, Mrs. Katherine Germanovich, Mrs. H. Hardesty, Mrs. W. J. Engle, Mrs. L. E. Tennis and Mrs. F. B. Beale. The guests present reported very good time.

BAND-ORCHESTRA

EMBLEM MAY BE GIVEN TO PUPILS

Emblems for members of the New Castle senior high school band and orchestra are possible, following action of the New Castle School board Wednesday night at a special meeting.

The idea was promulgated by Mrs. Walter Gibson who in a letter to Director W. Dr. Jackson turned the letter over to the board and the idea received favorable comment.

It was referred to Superintendent C. C. Green for investigation and recommendation.

Property items were not transcribed for the city but the school board asked that they be done for the schools.

City Treasurer C. C. McKibben was present and said that the people employed on the work had done it quickly and efficiently and in his estimation were well worth 45 cents per hour. The bill was ordered paid in the total amount of $134.

Plan Survey Of New Castle For New Industries

Industrial Engineering Committee Is Organized At Meeting Wednesday Evening

WILL WORK WITH ENGINEERS SOCIETY

Formation of an industrial engineering committee for New Castle took place at a meeting Wednesday evening in the office of L. B. Round, of the Pennsylvania Power Company, for the purpose of making a study and survey of conditions in New Castle, relative to an effort to secure new industries for New Castle and to aid in expansion of those already located here.

This committee will make a study of the source of raw materials of all the existing industries, the value of their by-products for complementary to new industries, a survey of the source of their raw materials and the location of their consuming markets both for the benefit of new ones. An attempt will be made to secure some outside sources or the creation of industries to utilize the by-products of the industries now operating here and to use local materials.

The first step in the organization of this committee was taken under the joint auspices of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce and the Mahoning-Shenango Valleys Engineers Society but it was decided last night to make this an independent committee to function for the community working with the technically trained men of the district.

Committee Named

The committee consists of Messrs. T. H. Hartman, president of the Lawrence Savings & Trust Company; L. B. Round, vice president of the Pennsylvania Power Company; W. K. McAfee, president of the Universal Sanitary Manufacturing Company; Numa Vidal, technical engineer of the Pennsylvania Power Company; Glenn Throop, city engineer; Edward L. Davenport, technical engineer of the Johnson Bronze Company; Edward Brundage, superintendent of the National Radiator Company; J. L. Matthews, superintendent of the Water Company; Frank S. Hoyt, engineer; Forbes Burdette, of the Water Company; Ray S. Tannehill, of the Bell Telephone Company; Daniel McCarthy, of the American Sheet & Tin Plate Company, and Alfred W. Chilton, secretary of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce.

At the organization meeting held last night, W. K. McAfee was named general chairman of this committee with Edward Davenport and J. L. Matthews associate chairmen and Alfred W. Chilton, secretary.

The preliminary work taken up by the committee to begin their functioning was that of revising the industrial survey made by the New Castle Chamber of Commerce in 1927. This will be in charge of J. L. Matthews and Glenn Throop, who will also organize the efforts to secure additional pertinent data on the community. Mr. Davenport was delegated to make a study of all purchases of the present industries of New Castle, the source of their raw materials, etc., and Mr. Vidal was assigned the making of a study of the sales of the industries located in New Castle, the uses of their products, where sold, etc. T. H. Hartman was delegated to compile financial statistics of the district pertaining to our banks, building and loan associations, and other types of financial institutions.

The next meeting of the committee will be held immediately following the compilation of the preliminary data now being secured by Messrs. Matthews, Throop, Vidal and Hartman.

This committee will analyze the advantages of our community as a means of determining the particular type and kinds of industries which will be best suited to this area.

Flashlight Signals
For McCleary Ave.

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Jan. 30.—An announcement of the death of Serg. William Hallman, 34, a native of Dumore, stationed with Troop B, State Highway Patrol, at Butler, was made here today by Capt. Wilson C. Price, superintendent of the patrol.

Expressing the regret of the headquarters staff, Price said he had received word Hallman died this morning from an extended illness.

The patrolman previously had served at Greensburg and Pittsburgh stations of the highway patrol.

The new signals will substitute for the automatically operated highway crossing alarm bell now maintained at the crossing.

STOP THAT COLD
IN ITS TRACKS!

Let It Not Get a Foothold!

A cold is nothing to "monkey with." It can take hold quickly and develop seriously. Take no chances on inviting dangerous complications. Treat a cold promptly and treat it for what it is—an internal infection. Take a preparation that is internal and one that is expressly for colds and not for a number of other things as well.

A wise thing to take is Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine— for several reasons. Instead of a "cure-all," it is expressly a cold tablet. It is also an internal treatment which a cold, an internal infection, requires. And it does four important things. First, it opens the bowels. Second, it checks the infection in the system. Third, it relieves the headache and fever. Fourth, it tones the system and helps fortify against further attack.

Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine contains nothing harmful and is absolutely safe to take.

For more than forty years it has been the stand-by of thousands in the relief of colds. Every druggist sells Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine. Always ask for it by the full name and look for the letters L B Q stamped on every tablet. The few pennies cost may save you a lot of trouble.

Planes To Bomb New York City

Theoretical Attack To Be Made On New York By
"Enemy Planes"

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—An "enemy" air force will start a theoretical attack on New York Saturday.

The attack will concentrate on the army air base at Mitchel Field, Garden City, Long Island. Ten powerful Martin bombers will seek to "destroy" New York's aerial defense base.

The base will be defended by 20 crack Boeing pursuit airplanes, swiftest of their type in the world, and 20 Curtiss attack airplanes. The "enemy" bombers will leave on their make-believe mission of destruction from their "base" at Concord, N. H. The "air raid" is scheduled to last three days. It will represent the first phase of winter maneuvers in the New England area, designed to test the ability of the air corps' combat squadrons to operate in the field at extremely low temperatures without heated hangars and other home base facilities. Lt. Col. A. H. Gilkeson, commander of the eighth pursuit group, Langley Field, Va., will be in charge of headquarters at Mitchel Field.

Following this first attack, a second will be launched by both the bombers and 20 Curtiss attack airplanes Feb. 4. It will continue until Feb. 7th. Then the maneuvers will shift to Vermont, where a temporary army air base at Burlington, defended by 20 Boeing pursuit airplanes, will be "attacked" by the bombing and attack machines about Feb. 8th and last until the 15th.

Christy Flanagan Will Give

Business

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Jan. 30.—Christy Flanagan will abandon his post as head football coach and athletic director at Duquesne university to enter private business.

This was disclosed today when it became known Flanagan refused to sign a new contract offered him a month ago because of his intention to join his father in operating an oil business in his home state of Texas.

Flanagan's present contract expires tomorrow and his father was reported to have prevailed upon him to decline a renewal.

He is expected to be succeeded by John P. "Clipper" Smith, his assistant during the past season and who, like his predecessor, is a Notre Dame alumnus. Flanagan came to Duquesne in 1934 when Joe Bach was head coach and became chief mentor when the latter resigned the following year.

Take a preparation that is internal and one that is expressly for colds and not for a number of other things as well.

A wise thing to take is Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine— for several reasons.

Instead of a "cure-all," it is expressly a cold tablet.

It is also an internal treatment which a cold, an internal infection, requires.

And it does four important things.

First, it opens the bowels.

Second, it checks the infection in the system.

Third, it relieves the headache and fever.

Fourth, it tones the system and helps fortify against further attack.

Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine contains nothing harmful and is absolutely safe to take.

For more than forty years it has been the stand-by of thousands in the relief of colds.

Every druggist sells Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine.

Always ask for it by the full name and look for the letters L B Q stamped on every tablet.

The few pennies cost may save you a lot of trouble.

Mrs. Roosevelt Keeps Silence

Has No Comment On Any Of Attacks Made On New Deal Policies

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt today commented for the edification of a well-attended press conference on a few of the political developments of the past hectic week, as follows:

Q. Have you read the account of the proceedings at Gov. Talmadge's Democratic grass roots of the south convention at Macon, Georgia? (Where the Roosevelt administration was severely rebuffed.)

A. Yes.

Q. Have you anything to say about it?

A. No.

Q. Have you read the accounts of the Marine Band walking out on the Women's Patriotic Conference on National Defense? (An incident believed based on resentment of the Navy Department against an anti-administration speech permitted by the conference.)

A. Yes.

Q. Anything to say?

A. No.

Q. Have you read Al Smith's (Liberty League Dinner) speech?

A. Yes.

Q. Anything to say?

A. No.

The lady news-hawks retired, defeated by the first lady's garrulity.

It was pointed out that by himself applying for a new trial, Westwood waives his constitutional guarantee against "double jeopardy"—the guarantees that no man may be placed in jeopardy of death twice for the same crime.

The Pennsylvania supreme court, attorneys said, has never ruled on such a situation.

Al Scarazzo Is Honored At Party

One of the most delightful occasions of the week was a surprise party honoring the birthday anniversary of Al Scarazzo, South Side merchant. The event, held recently in his home on Hazelcroft avenue, was given by Nick Scarazzo, Mrs. Al Scarazzo and employees of Mr. Scarazzo.

Cards and music were the popular pastimes of the evening. Prizes were awarded to: Mrs. C. Steele, Mrs. N. Scarazzo, Pat Olfreo, W. T. Keady and D. Scarazzo. During the course of the occasion dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. A. Scarazzo, assisted by Mrs. V. Martocci, Mrs. C. Tranquillo and Mrs. P. Marrangoni.

Out of town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. C. Steele, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dillner, William T. Keady and Mrs. Noel, all of Pittsburgh.

News Briefs From City Hall

Police were called to 441 Court street at 2:45 a.m. today when the occupants heard a suspicious noise in the cellar. The suspicious noise turned out to be a frozen water pipe.

Cruised cars replied to the fire alarms turned in last night.

Street department operations returned to normalcy today, according to Director B. F. Butler. Cold weather has hampered their work, he stated.

What will be done by city and county toward securing an airport along route 422 is not yet known. However, it is expected that officials of the state board of aeronautics may come here soon for a conference.

A Reid English, sealer of weights and inspector of measures, who will be succeeded by James M. Rae, has served four years. He was named to the office, which he has conducted faithfully, during the term of Mayor Charles B. Mayne.

ITALIAN LADIES
CLUBS PARTY IS

In the basement of the St. Vitus church recently, Italian ladies clubs of the city entertained a large crowd at a delightful card party.

The occasion, a success in every detail, was held for the benefit of orphans. Delicious refreshments were served during the course of the event. Efforts on the part of the following committee resulted in the outcome: Mrs. F. Colao, chairlady; Mrs. H. A. Fazzone, Mrs. James Cherol, Mrs. Mary Donati, Miss Jennie Venturina, Mrs. A. Villani, Miss Jennie Latrone, Miss Mary Porfilio, Mrs. P. Scarazzo, Mrs. Lena Casella, Mrs. Frances DeLillo, Mrs. Yolanda Carney, Mrs. Ralph Lemer, Mrs. Mary Conti, Mrs. L. New Farm Bill Fate Uncertain

Half-Hearted Approval Of Committee Given In Report To Senate

VALIDITY OF NEW
MEASURE DOUBTED

By EDWARD B. LOCKETT
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Facing an uncertain course, President Roosevelt's proposed substitute for the invalidated AAA was presented to the Senate today with what appeared to be only a little more than half-hearted approval of its agriculture committee.

The committee voted to report the bill to the Senate on a count of 14 to 2. Many members indicated they doubted constitutionality of the legislation, and simply felt that it should go to the Senate in the interest of speed, since there seemed to be no alternative in sight on which the committee could agree.

Two of the committee members, Chairman Smith (D) of South Carolina and Senator Capper (R) of Kansas, specifically stated they voted to report the bill not to report it favorably.

The measure retained the revised form in which it was drafted by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace and Chester G. Davis, who administered the AAA. The soil conservation act of last year formed the basis of authority.

Broad Powers

Broad powers to control production and pay benefits to farmers were embraced in the new measure. It also stipulated the policy of the government would be to move within two years to a farm program in which the federal and state governments jointly cooperated, with provisions for state aid from the federal government.

One amendment was inserted with a view to bringing the bill within the constitution. This simply set forth that the real objective of the bill was soil conservation and improvement, seeking to make crop control and benefits incidental to the main objective which Democrats claimed was constitutional.

Republicans bitterly opposed the bill and denounced it as unconstitutional. Republican leader McNary, of Oregon, and Senator Norbeck (R) of South Dakota, voted against it in committee.

The Senate inflation bloc was examining the bill to determine if it could be used as a vehicle for currency expansion.

Most seriously injured were the truck-driver, Glen Swart, 18, of Amity, concussion; Sam Carey, 43, twisted pelvis; and August Holmes, 48, both arms broken.

LET KIDNEYS FLUSH OUT 3 LBS. A DAY

Clean Out 15 Miles of Kidney Tubes

Nature puts over 15 miles of tiny tubes and filters in your kidneys to strain the waste matter out of the blood. Kidneys should pass 3 pints a day and so get rid of more than 3 pounds of waste matter.

When the passing of water is slow, with straining and burning, the 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes and dizziness.

If kidneys don't empty a pint a day and so get rid of more than 3 pounds of waste matter, your body may take up some of those poison wastes and trouble. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, which have been used successfully by millions of people for over 40 years. They give happy relief and help the kidneys to flush out 3 pounds a day instead on Doan's Pills.

(International News Service)
PARIS, Jan. 30.—Recovery for France is on the way, and the government is militantly resolved to defend the gold standard, despite speculative onslaughts, Jean Tannery reported to the shareholders of the Bank of France at the close of his first year as governor.

The bank's dogged support of the franc throughout a "particularly troubled year" was graphically stressed. As the result of the two major offensives against the franc, in May and November, 16,000,000,000 ($1,057,200,000) in gold left the vaults of the bank.

His company, in 1935, made a net profit of $167,226,000, about $73,000,000 more than in 1934. In the last quarter of 1935, General Motors net profit was $52,743,072, highest earnings for that quarter in General Motors' existence of 28 years.

(International News Service)
GREENSBURG, Pa., Jan. 30.—Alex Conwell, 72, trapper thanked his lucky stars today there were still deer in the woods.

When Fred Carnes and John Graham of Oak Grove became worried about the possibility of deer starving in the mountains because of the intense cold and snow, they set out remedy the situation.

In a cabin along the Menoher highway the pair came upon Conwell, his fuel gone and his last match used. Two crusts of bread was all the food he had.

The aged trapper told the men he had been house-bound for two weeks.

Building & Loans Show Real Estate Picture Is Brighter Than Year Ago

That the past year has been one of general progress for the home-financing institutions of Lawrence county is shown in reports today which revealed that associations in New Castle and Ellwood City placed almost a quarter of a million dollars worth of new loans during 1929.

To support the belief that real estate conditions are better is the fact that all associations reported increased payments on loans during the year and that much new money has been seeking this medium of investment.

The stability of these associations is evidenced by the fact that during the year the following associations: Dollar Savings association, Ellwood City Building & Loan association, Equitable Building & Loan association, People's Mutual Building & Loan association, People's Mutual Building & Loan association and the New Castle Mutual Building & Loan association, paid or credited in dividends to shareholders accounts an amount of $131,411.48. The total assets of the various associations now amount to $4,096,080.

PLAINGROVE

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Wednesday marked the twenty-eighth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brennaman. The daughters, Mrs. Chas. Steven of Sharpsville, and Mrs. Joe Ligo of Ellwood City planned a dinner and surprise for their mother. Mr. Brennaman, being absent at Harrisburg could not join in the festivities and Mrs. Brennaman was surely surprised. An anniversary dinner was partaken of at the noon hour. Mrs. Mae McConahy, Eastbrook was also a guest as well as husbands of the daughters. On account of the road being so drifted several of the party remained for several days. A very enjoyable time was had by all the only regret that Mr. Brennaman could not be there to help celebrate.

READING CIRCLE

The Plain Grove Reading Circle will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winger on February the seventh. The following program will be rendered, "Is the W. P. A. a Detriment or a Help to Our Commonwealth"; Music—Thomas and Jane Brown; Reading—Luella Pollock; Recitation—Imogene Minor, Luella Pollock, Nathan Offutt.

COMMUNION SERVICES

Communion services will be held at the Presbyterian church on Sunday. On Friday evening preparatory services will be held. Rev. Hiram Van Cleve will be the guest speaker.

Union service will be held on Sunday evening with Rev. Johnson of Prospect as the guest speaker.

PLAINGROVE NOTES

The condition of Mrs. Manville Foster seems to be improved at this writing.

Mrs. Flora Armstrong had the misfortune to fall while taking care of her livestock and sprain her ankle badly.

The condition of K. L. Neely who has been on the sick list for several weeks, seems to remain about the same.

Several from around here were in attendance at the farm show held at Harrisburg. Chas. Brennaman returned with his cattle that he had entered.

We are all sorry to hear that Mr. and Mrs. Claire Winger have sold their farm and are going to another neighborhood. Mr. Ligo of Meridian has purchased the farm.

School has been resumed after a vacation of two days duration. On account of the cold weather and badly drifted roads the school buses could not travel. Basketball game was postponed till a later date.

Those from here who attended the funeral of Mrs. Laura Johnson of New Wilmington were Mr. and Mrs. John Sankey and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brennaman. Mrs. Dorothy Ligo of Ellwood City. Mrs. Johnson was an aunt of Chas. Brennaman, and Mrs. Grace Sankey.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gordon were visitors in East Palestine, O., on Saturday.

Mrs. Russel McMorrone and daughter Marion, were visitors in East Palestine on Saturday.

Miss Dorothea Goschke of Beaver Valley hospital visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Goschke on Wednesday.

Many friends will be sorry to know that Elmer Coblenz of Little Beaver is at the home of relatives in East Palestine very ill.

CONGRESS FACES BONUS FUND RESPONSIBILITY

President Puts Issue To Congress

Says Action Must Be Taken To Provide Funds To Make Payment

TWO AND QUARTER BILLION NEEDED

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—President Roosevelt today shifted responsibility of finding money to pay the soldiers bonus to congress.

In a move which surprised many bonus advocates, the president submitted supplemental budget estimates totaling $2,249,178,375 to meet the cost of redeeming the Adjusted Service Certificates.

Sponsors of the "Baby Bond" method of paying the bonus had taken the position that no appropriations beyond the expense of printing the bonds, additional personnel and cancelled interest would have to be appropriated.

Submits Cost

Mr. Roosevelt, on advice of the Budget Bureau, however, submitted estimates for the entire cost of the bonus except for interest payments, yet to be calculated.

The president asked congress to appropriate:

$2,237,000,000 to establish an adjusted service certificate fund to provide for payment of the face value of the outstanding service certificates.

$5,500,000 for administrative expenses of the veterans administration.

$6,678,375 for expenditures by the secretary of the treasury, chiefly for printing and engraving and employment of personnel.

Announcement of the action was made at the White House, but the president's letter did not reach Speaker Byrnes before he left the capitol.

Club Officers Convene At Y. W.

Girl Reserve Inter-Cabinet Conference Yesterday Is Very Successful

Stimulating discussions, from which emerged many practical working plans for their eight clubs, interested 120 Girl Reserve cabinet officers who met in conference at the Y. W. C. A. Wednesday afternoon and evening.

A general assembly at 4:45 p.m. in the auditorium opened the inter-cabinet conference, and Miss Marguerite D. White, general secretary, gave the welcome. Music was led by Phyllis Elder, accompanied by Gertrude Taylor.

Officers present were from the New Castle, Shenango and Union high schools, the Benjamin Franklin, George Washington and Mahoning junior high schools, and the two clubs of Elm Street Center, Y. W. C. A.

They sub-divided into discussion groups where their duties were explained by group leaders, ideas exchanged and suggestions made regarding administration, program and service.

Dinner was later serviced. Between the courses Miss Elma Robson, Union high school adviser, sang "Trees."

A half hour of recreation in the gym followed, then the girls reconvened in their club cabinet meetings where they applied the suggestions received in discussion groups.

Members of the Girl Reserve Committee were honor guests at the cabinet meetings.

Operators Banquet At Parkman Tonight

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Jan. 30.—Penn-OHIO Coach Lines drivers from all parts of the interurban bus system will gather in the Parkman, O. community hall Thursday for the annual banquet in honor of the men who made outstanding records for safe driving in the year 1935.

The dinner is given as a token of appreciation to the operators of the Penn-OHIO buses who went through either the first half or the second half of last year without an accident charged against their records. Out of a total of 58 drivers in the service for one or both of these periods, 56 or 96 percent qualified by six month accident-free records. Of the 54 drivers in the service throughout 1935 there were 40, or 74 per cent, who completed the year without an accident charged against them.

Six hundred seventy pounds of grass seed were let out to bid Wednesday night by the New Castle school board meeting in special session. The bid of the Cripps Hardware company was low, their bid being $91.50.

AROUND CITY HALL

When councilmen compiled the budget for 1936 they returned to general revenue more than $20,000 which had been appropriated but not used for materials on city projects put through with WPA labor. This money then was designed for a restoration of 10 per cent of money taken from city employees during the last few years. As bills came in for materials purchased by the former council the $20,000 was decreased so that now only $16,000 is left. According to reports city employees have not yet abandoned hope of realizing the 10 per cent addition to their present wage and council has not yet decided definitely not to grant the 10 per cent.

Although there was a report current yesterday that some important appointments would be made Friday, apparently the report was like many others—bunk. Mayor Charles E. McGrath was questioned as to the authenticity of the report that wormed around the city and said that he, for one, had not authorized anyone to say what he proposed to do.

ITALY DELIVERS NOTE TO EGYPT

(International News Service)

CAIRO, Jan. 30.—Amid riotous anti-British feeling, in Egypt, the Italian government today delivered a note to King Fuad complaining against the participation of Egypt—a non-member—in League of Nations sanctions.

The communication warned that Italy would hold Egypt responsible for any measures adopted, and reserved the right to demand indemnity "for moral and material damage" suffered by Italian subjects.

Foreigners Are Warned To Flee

(International News Service)

PEIPING, Jan. 30.—The last remaining American, British and other foreigners in Kweiyang, capital of Kweichow province, were urgently warned to flee today as French Communist troops hammered at the walls of Lingshi, only 14 miles southeast of this capital.

Sweeping all resistance before them in a relentless eastward drive from Hunan province, some 40,000 rebels yesterday tramped through the ancient streets of Kweiyang after emergency broadcasts had been torn down in a bitter battle.

With government troops falling back on Kweiyang, where they expect to make a decisive stand, the Communists opened a smashing attack on Lungli.

Sacred Hearts Win First-Half Title In Church League

Defeat First Baptists 33 To 13 For Championship In First Half

Second Half Of League Will Start On Friday Night, February 7

Sacred Hearts basketball team, also known as the Keystone A. C., coached by Andy "Coots" Venditto, won the first-half championship of the New Castle Church AA league last night at the Y. M. C. A. by defeating the First Baptists 33 to 13 in a fast and well played game.

The Hearts by their splendid victory last night, will be entitled to meet the winners of the second half which starts on Friday night, February 7, for the championship of the league. Of course if the Hearts win the second half, there will not be a playoff series.

Venditto took his team through 11 victories and but two setbacks in the first-half of the season. The Epworth M. E. team finished second with 10 and three.

Kelly Is Star

Kelly was the whole works for the Sacred Hearts with 14 of the points, while Viggiano, Merando and Gallagher contributed points to the victory. For the Baptists Ridley, Grrommes and Battley were the big stars, along with Jack (Newlyweds) Lewellyn, who returned to the lineup and added pep and dash to the Baptists.

The game was fairly close in the first half with the Hearts ahead 15 to 13, but in the second half Kelly popped in four baskets, and the Hearts led 18 to 5 for the second half and the lopsided count of 33 to 13.

Smooth Working Team

Coach Venditto deserves credit for bringing his team through to the championship. The Sacred Hearts or Keystones are perhaps one of the smoothest working teams in New Castle.

In other games in the church AA league last night the St. Nicholas boys lost to the Central Christians 21 to 15, and the Epworth M. E. team hopped over the First Christians 26 to 23.

Schoolboy Rivals Set For Clash At Shenango High Hardwood

Friday night on the Shenango high floor, two bitter rivals will oppose each other when Shenango's Blue and Gold clad quintet lines up against Bessemer high.

A preliminary contest, the girls of both schools will play at 7:30 o'clock. The two teams looked the part of smooth combinations Tuesday night; Bessemer took the measure of East Board, and Shenango fought its way to a triumph over Zelienople. An exciting contest is anticipated.

New Castle High At New Brighton On Friday Night

First Game Of Second Round In Section Three Scheduled Tomorrow

Fighting with their backs to the wall now, the New Castle high school "Red Hurricane" basketball team will go to New Brighton Friday night for a Section Three engagement.

Tomorrow night will mark the start of the second half of the section schedule. The New Castles defeated the Brightonians here earlier in the year and the Roamans will be out for revenge. Harry "Kaiser" Toscano and Johnnie Cabas will be missing from the New Castle lineup tomorrow night.

Probabilities are that the officials of the Lawrence County Baseball league will hold a meeting in February to arrange details for the league next summer. The circuit enjoyed a good season last summer.

With snow on the ground and the life of birds at stake, persons who like to hunt for that kind of game should get in touch with Andy Dodds, president Lawrence County Sportsmen's association, and Frank Coen, game warden, so they can help to scatter feed for the birds.

Edward C. Rogers, 24, Glen Cove, N. Y., playing in his first major tournament, dethroned J. Howard Shoemaker, New York veteran, as national amateur pocket billiard champion at New York last night. Rogers defeated the 21 times winner of the title, 125 to 42, in the final match.

Joe Dailey pens a missive from Miami which says that "the fight decisions are terrible here. You have to murder your man to get the decision. Another card from Miami signed by Mr. Hensel, of Harlansburg, reports he saw an Indian buck wrestler down an alligator on the Seminole reservation.

Barney Ross wants a crack at the middleweight title held by Babe Risko. He has held the lightweight title, the junior welterweight crown and also the welterweight championship. If he should fight and gain the crown it would be the first time any fighter has collected four titles.

With Carnera shouting for another crack at Joe Louis and a match between Champion James J. Braddock and Joe Louis reported made and the scrappers in other divisions punching each other weekly the summer should see a big revival in the boxing game. The wrestlers likewise are attracting the people in sections where it is yet novelty.

Inspection Pulls Surprise In Game Wednesday Night

Gives Strong Finishing Team 32-28 Set-Back At Shelby Auditorium

MECHANICS TROUNCED BY COLD DRAW FIVE

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 30.—Two neat surprises were pulled in the Shelby Inter-Department Basketball League at the opening of the second round in the Shelby Auditorium last night. In the first contest the Inspection won their first game of the season in impressive fashion by tripling the highly touted Finishing passers 32-28. The strong Mechanical cagers were humbled in the second game of the evening by the Cold Draw. The score was 43-28.

The Inspection strengthened by the return of Jim Fitzgerald to the basketball wars again proved to be a clicking combination last night. They had the material but just haven't been able to get clicking. The game was close and hard fought throughout. Inspection left no doubt of its intentions from the opening whistle. They jumped to a 13-10 lead in the initial period, but were trailing 18-17 at half time. They came back strong in the third period to count up 8 points to the Finishing's 3 to take a 25-21 lead. The final chapter was fought on even terms with both teams scoring 7 points. Freidhoff, Fitzgerald, and Latianno were the big guns of Inspection's attack. Barnes and Ursu were best for the losers.

After a mediocre showing in the first round the Cold Draw again proved to have found itself last night and avenged its earlier defeat by the Mechanicals in impressive fashion. After an 8-5 lead by the Mechanicals in the first quarter, the Cold Draw took things into their own hands. They jumped ahead 18-12 at the half and were never headed again. The third quarter was played on even terms with both teams scoring six points. In the closing stanza the Cold Draw went wild to count up 17 points to the Mechanicals 8, making the final count 43-28. Les Clyde had a field night by caging 9 field goals one foul for a total of 19 points. Ungham and Ferucci also played a fine game. Segedi and Robuck were best for the Mechanicals. The summary:

New York Paper Says Hauptmann Declares "No More To Tell"

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—The failure of Governor Harold Hoffmann's special investigators to uncover any new evidence which might save Bruno Richard Hauptmann from the electric chair has compelled the New Jersey executive to appeal to the Bronx carpenter to name the "master mind" behind the murder of the Lindbergh baby, the Evening Journal declared today in an exclusive story.

The newspaper stated it learned from a source inside the death house of the New Jersey State prison, where Hauptmann is confined, that Hoffmann sent word to the prisoner he would recommend life imprisonment for him if he would change his story and involve others.

"I have told my story," the paper said Hauptmann told the governor's representative. "There is no other story to tell. Believe me, I have thought to tell some other one of them, but I knew they would know I was lying. There's only the one true story and I told it."

Proposal Before Congress To Probe Financing Phase Of Movement

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—House leaders today approved a proposed searching congressional investigation of the Townsend $200-a-month-old-age-pension movement.

Unless the investigation proposal is blocked by the Townsend forces a special committee will be named to inquire into the finances and all other phases of the Townsend campaign.

Rep. Bell (D) of Missouri, after consulting the house's leadership, introduced the resolution for the inquiry. It was referred to the house rules committee, whose chairman, Rep. O'Connor (D) of New York, who approved the resolution, promised to give it early consideration.

"I believe that we have a fair chance for action," said Bell. "The reports concerning the Townsend plan and other schemes for aid to the aged, charges that the pension movement is a 'racket' and that huge sums of money have been collected which will have gone for other purposes, warrants action."

Aroused by the threat of Dr. Francis E. Townsend, the California physician who heads the $200-a-month movement, to defeat members of congress who refuse to pledge their aid, a counter-drive was launched in the house this week.

The scheme of Dr. Townsend has been assailed as visionary, and charges have been made that huge sums of money have been collected. Some reports put collections of the Townsend group at $100,000 a month.

TO MOVE EMPLOYES

Offices of the Lawrence County Emergency Relief, located on South Mill street, will be closed all day Saturday, it was announced today. The reason for the closing is that the relief office workers, now located in the Wallace block, are to be transferred back to the offices on South Mill street, and this will require all of the day. All relief workers will be housed in the South Mill street building as of Monday morning, February 3.

Set About Task Of Carrying Out Unusual Will

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 30.—The grieving fiancee of Dr. Michael H. Kapinya and his friends today set about carrying out the terms of his strange will in which he expressed the belief he will return to earth.

A student of Buddhist and Hindu philosophies, Dr. Kapinya requested that his body be cremated and the ashes cast upon water and that his belongings be distributed. His sweetheart, Miss Helen Dorba, 27, will take the ashes to Hungary for his parents to view and then scatter them in the ocean between the shores of Europe and the coast of the United States.

A mystic to his friends but a physician beloved by the patients to whom he was always available, Dr. Kapinya wrote in his will:

"If anything happens to me, my body shall be cremated and the ashes dispersed in a running water or the ocean. My belief is that everybody will be reborn as soon as his body and his belongings are annihilated."
